Examples of nominees

The first example is an individual with a passion for travel, international volunteering, and Girl Scouting who has served as the council's Global Volunteer Liaison for four years. In this role, she was tasked with increasing the global dimension of Girl Scouting throughout both the council and the community at large. She began by collaborating with council Membership staff members to identify the most underserved girls in the council's jurisdiction. She found a huge opportunity for growth among Hispanic girls and volunteers, and specifically within the Honduran community, spanning several urban and rural areas. By reaching out to the leaders and those communities, she forged partnerships and led girl- and volunteer-recruitment efforts that brought a 68 percent increase in girl membership and a 72 percent increase in adult membership over four years.

She also helped launch a twinning opportunity with a Honduran school for daughters of single moms. Through this partnership, the volunteer helped 15 Girl Scouts plan and attend an international trip to Honduras to help build and supply a new library for this school. During her four years as Global Volunteer Liaison, she led two other international trips to World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts World Centers for 35 Girl Scout Ambassadors. She also has spoken and shared her experiences at each bi-annual volunteer enrichment workshop, encouraging and recruiting other Girl Scout volunteers to lead trips to the five World Centers.

In addition to sharing her passion and expertise in global Girl Scouting, this volunteer has been a regular contributor to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund and has spoken to 10 local corporations about financial support for the fund.

Another example is a Girl Scout council that identified the need to increase its global impact and awareness of the global aspect of Girl Scouting in its strategic priorities, so it developed a five-year implementation plan. Throughout those five years, the council created a travel fund to support girl involvement in global Take Action projects and dedicated half of a full-time staff position to coordinating staff and volunteer fund-raising efforts for the fund and the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund.

The council encouraged Girl Scout Bronze, Silver, and Gold Award candidates to think globally. As part of its annual plan, the council hosted an event for award candidates to talk with girls who completed international projects and travel, as well as talk with potential award sponsors to plan for global impact and sustainability within the project.

The council also sponsored twinning opportunities with organizations in countries that represent the diversity of its girl and adult membership. Throughout a five-year period, the council has actively helped girls plan international trips to the five World Centers and successfully recruited volunteers to lead those trips.

Through effective communication of the intercultural aspects of Girl Scouting and Girl Guiding, this council has become a leader for cultural awareness and global action in the community. A page on its Web site is dedicated to sharing successes of its girls and volunteers in regard to global efforts. It also offers a course about global Girl Scouting for existing volunteers and community partners, and it provides girl and volunteer speakers at community events.
