

GSTF Girl Scout Silver AWARD Process

1- Girl Scout completes all prerequisites.

Completes One Cadette Level Journey

Attends Girl Scout Silver Award Training

2 -Girl Scout completes Silver Award Project Proposal on GSTF official form and submits to Highest Awards Task Group staff representative at least one week before the monthly Highest Awards Task Group monthly meeting, which occurs on the first Wednesday of each month (except July and August). If working as part of a group (no more than 4 Girl Scouts), each member of the group must submit a separate proposal, in their own words that outlines their unique roles/tasks in the project.

3 -Proposal is reviewed at monthly meeting and within one week of that meeting, Girl Scout receives email approval to begin the project or recommendations for project improvement.

4- If necessary, Girl Scout revises project proposal as directed by Highest Awards Task Group and resubmits. Within one week of submitting the revised proposal, Girl Scout receives email notification whether proposal was approved or needs further revision. Girl Scout receives approval via email by High Awards Task Group staff representative to begin project. Approval by the Highest Awards Task Group is necessary before beginning any Silver Award project.

5- Girl Scout implements Silver Award Project following all GSTF and GSUSA guidelines under direction of her Project and Troop Advisors.

6- Girl Scout completes and submits Silver Award Project Report, using GSTF official form, to High Awards Task Group staff representative. Final Reports are reviewed by Highest Awards Task Group at their monthly meetings (except in July and August).

7 -Within one week of review, Girl Scout receives email approval or request for additional information.

8 - If necessary, Girl Scout makes revisions to Final Report and resubmits to High Awards Task Group staff representative

9-Once revised Final Report is approved, Girl Scout is invited to the annual Gold & Silver Award Ceremony.

Deadline for submitting the Silver Award Final Report is Sept. 1 of the year entering 9th Grade.
